

> Your Images of One eNewsletter

>

> ~~~~~

> There is nothing you cannot be, do or have.

> ~~~~~

> Discover proven scientific and spiritual evidence, tools and how-to > information that's turning ordinary people into powerful, joyful > creators of their financial, health and relationship worlds.

>

> <http://clicks.aweber.com/z/ct/?NwYKdsl9WUNoX6CYd5J2vw>

>

> ~~~~~

>

>

> How to Allow For More in Your Life Right Away

>

>

> There is a simple but very powerful way in which you can allow for > more successes in your life right away. It is a way in which there is > nothing to do really, yet you create so many new changes and > successes. The first time you try it, it will amaze you as though it > were magic. How powerful it is!

>

> So what is this powerful way? Before we answer that, think of a coin.
> A coin has a heads side and a tails side. Imagine that you hated the > tails side of a coin and did everything you could not to ever see or > be anywhere near the tail side of a coin. In other words you resisted > it. What do you suppose is the natural outcome of that resistance?
> This is not a trick question. The answer is very simple. Simplicity is > perfection. What would happen is that you would never see the heads > side either, and so you would never see the whole coin. Of course! It > is simply clear that you cannot have a coin with just one side. Resist > one side, and you loose the other, and you end up with no coin. It is > the same thing with a bird. Any one wing on its own is useless for > flight, but both wings together make flight!

>

> And now here is the simple but powerful way:

>

> By universal law, embracing one side allows it's opposite to manifest > automatically.

>

> That is it.

>

> Before we look at this more clearly and powerfully, consider that life > is composed of this and that, up and down, left and right, night and > day, and so on. Look at the infinity sign. It is two sides joined in > the middle, is it not? You find yourself in the middle, where you find > the third reality, the powerful way we are talking about here. Let us > see how.

>

> The reality you see outside of you is composed of two sides, > polarities, dualities. These two sides always appear to be opposites > of each other, like poverty and wealth for example. Poverty and wealth > look like two completely different realities, yet metaphysically they > arise from the same Oneness. Have you ever shone white light into a > prism?

> It splits up into the colors of the rainbow. And if you shine a > rainbow spectrum into a prism it comes out of the other side as white > light. That is how life moves through you from the nonphysical and > shines out into your reality as seemingly opposite things.
>
> Life happens through you but never to you. This automatically means > that you create your reality, consciously and unconsciously or even > from your Higher Self, but only you create your reality.
>
> Now think of something in your life that you are currently pushing > against, resisting, perhaps even hating. Now we will first brush over > the inefficient way of handling this. The inefficient way is one which > we are all very familiar with, because we think it works! What we do > is resist and fight against that which we don't like. This is > inefficient because, by universal law, what you resist persists. That > is so because whatever you give your attention to grows. So if your > mind and emotions are on that which you hate, you only expand it. And > that is why the vast majority of humanity appears to be stuck in > various struggles every now and then.
> These struggles are unnecessary. You do not get peace by hating and > fighting against war; you get it by focusing on peace everywhere. If > you don't believe this, imagine what would happen in your family if > you tried to attain peace by force or by keeping peace within your on > self and with others. Which would be more effective? Now multiply that > on a global scale.
>
> So what is the efficient powerful way then? First, let us quickly > define realities. You have the reality you are resisting, you have the > opposite reality that you desire and are trying to get to, and then > you have a third reality of creative power that you only get to when > you embrace both of the first two realities. It is like having the > coin's head as one reality, the tail as another, and the whole coin > and the spending power as the third.
>
> And now, here is the powerful way: Embrace that which you hate or > fear, own it and accept it with self-honesty for you cannot change > that which you avoid. This will reveal the secrets and gifts of that > reality and show you insights you never saw when you were resisting.
> Also, automatically, this makes room for it's opposite to manifest in > your reality.
> You need do nothing for this to start happening. And as it starts, you > will notice changes in your life outside and in your mind and > emotions. The first change will be inner calm, followed by external > changes. Notice these and move into them, giving them your attention, > and making this reality grow. So now you will begin to be surrounded > by the two realities, initially both at first. For example, if you > were fighting against poverty and then embraced it, new insights would > arise and you would know yourself as Who You Really Are in relation to > poverty (you would discover that you are not a victim, you would free > yourself from limiting ideas).
> Then, as you embrace that and drop the resistance you had to it, > abundance will start to creep into your life automatically. Initially, > they will be both the remnants of poverty manifesting in your reality, > and the new reality.

> The more you embrace and allow, the better it get. Now, the most > important thing: See and understand the connection between the two > sides! How are they related in relation to you? You will start to see, > for example, that you create realities. You will start to see the > connections between your thoughts and emotions and specific ideas in > you, and your out reality. This is how you get to grow into a more > deliberate creator. By understanding the inherent order and simple > perfection that lies amidst the apparent chaos and contradiction of > the two seemingly opposite realities, you know yourself and the source > of both sides! Thus you find yourself in the middle, the middle of the > infinity symbol.
> And this is where the powerful way lies.
>
>>From then on, that aspect of life becomes effortless! Where > have you heard this before? The rags to riches story! We have all > heard of how people went through rather troubling times only to emerge > at the other end with victory that we all wish we had! That person can > be you, everyone, simply by letting life through. You gain control of > your life by letting go of the need to control it, for you have no > needs, just desires. And there goes another paradox of two seemingly > opposite ideas, one which you can only understand fully by embracing > and experiencing both sides so as to emerge in the middle, the point > of power and understanding!
>
> There is much available to us nowadays in terms of high- level wisdom > and insights. Seek them and understand, if you wish to have the key > out of the box. You may also have a look at the book What If You Knew > The Answer To and the Reason For Everything In Your Life which is > available at www.imagesofone.com and looks into the completeness of > the understanding we are talking about here. I wish you success and > wellbeing.
>
> Article written by David Cameron, CEO ImagesOfOne.com.
>
>